

Kelémata is a botanical pharmaceutical house that has specialized in the manufacturing of treatments derived from the active ingredients of medicinal plants for over 60 years. This includes prescription drugs as well as over the counter remedies. The Corporate Offices, Research and Development Laboratories and Agricultural Experimental Centers are located in Turin, Italy on a complex called La Carignana. Once a royal residence, La Carignana sits on over 150 acres of land at the foot of the Alps. Here, in collaboration with the dermatological Departments of the Universities of Milan and Turin, botanical medicine is married to modern scientific technology for the production of cosmetic treatments.

Kelémata Group specializes in cosmetics and perfumes and manages some own brands, like Kelémata, Venus, Victor, Linetti, Perlier, Armonie Naturali, Ricette Naturali, La Voglia Matta, Elariia, and some as a licensee (Orlane).

Now Kelémata is present with its brands in over 160 countries around the world and its presence continues to grow thanks to acquisitions of different companies.

The group holder is now Kelémata SPA, belonging to Giraudi's family. Kelémata SPA holds Perlier SPA (present in Milan stock exchange) that holds Perlier INC., Perlier SPA distributor in the USA.

Arlene (UK) Ltd distributes only Linetti brand.
